I think we've finally reached the end
I think I finally understand it seemed so easy walking in your love's a footprint in my head my broken heart will always mend relentless lover takes a bend it seemed so easy falling in love's like a circus in my head sometimes it's better to let go

sometimes it's better to let go
sometimes it's better to let go
when they don't love you let them go

I hope my dreams are all but spent we race around this world's edge it seemed unlikely that it would end two lonely lovers once again

sometimes it's better to let go
sometimes it's better to let go

sometimes it's better to let go
sometimes it's better to let go
when they don't love you let them go.
