You You Hold On

When you've got nothing there ain't nothing you can do about it there ain't nothing you can do to maybe might change it there ain't nothing you can do to hold on to hold on or break it you've got nothing and everybody wanna take it from you and every little bit of something is nothing there ain't nothing you can do to hold on so hold on and take it

you you hold on
you hold on you'll make it
you you hold on
you you hold on.
